For instance, say I want to output the precision to the nearest thousandth. A: You can multiply by 1 000 and then use round to the nearest thousandth: $number = $number * 1000; echo round($number, -1000); This will give you 0.002000000000. The -1000 is the round-down: you will keep all digits before the point. See DALLAS – The jury in criminal court Thursday had to resume deliberations in the case of former Baylor University quarterback and Heisman Trophy hopeful Robert Griffin III after a female juror who was a teacher's aide at Griffin's high school was observed on the jury's third day of deliberation using a laptop computer to look up information on the case. Juror 63, who was spotted Monday and Tuesday with a laptop computer in the jury room, was speaking with two attorneys from the defense and prosecution who have been involved in the case. The defense attorney also saw the woman when he entered the jury room Tuesday, but could not determine what she was doing with her laptop. Defense attorney Dan Cogdell and prosecutor Jim Martin both said they had no idea what was going on with the juror or what she was doing on the laptop. "I don't know what that is. You don't have to worry about that," Cogdell said after court adjourned Thursday. The woman's mother, LaKoya Carter, said she wasn't aware of what the woman was doing. "I have nothing
